July 4, 1892

[Includes a letter from Henry Chapman, Jr., asking if he can rent a room for himself and his brother, and the response from the hotel proprietors]

["Kennebunkport" is written on the back of the envelope(s) for this hotel.]

Dear Sir

Your letter of 4th does not quite answer my inquiry - and last night as full as we desire -

1st Can you give us a nice room 2nd floor (up 2 flights) - for self & brother @ 17.50 each per week - we to have option of one week or more at same rate.

2nd Can you give Father a room adjoining for 17.50 a week - with same option as above.

We may remain more than one week - it largely depends on how our Father likes it, and we wish but at present we would not take room for more than a week.

The Western side of Holyhead is what we would like - do not wish to be under the cliffs

Please reply at once so we may arrange
